

FAMILY CABINS

Enjoy a family cabin with your loved ones in an Indiana State Park this year. The cabins offer privacy and comfort with bedrooms, living areas, kitchens and modern bathroom facilities.

Choose from modern cabins at Brown County, Chain O'Lakes, Harmonie, Lincoln, McCormick's Creek, Potato Creek, Shakamak, or Whitewater Memorial state parks. The capacities of the cabins range from four to eight depending on location (see chart below).

Cabins are very popular, so reserve early! Brown County's Abe Martin Lodge accepts reservations for their cabins up to two years in advance. All other parks accept reservations up to one year in advance.

Reservations may be made by telephone or online. With the exception of Brown County, cabins must be reserved for either one or two weeks during June, July and August and for a minimum of Friday and Saturday nights all other months. Cabins at Brown County require a minimum of two nights' reservation on weekends year-round. Minimum reservation periods in winter vary at the other parks. Additional minimum requirements also apply during holidays.

Be sure to indicate preference for smoking or non-smoking cabins.

Brown County, Potato Creek, Shakamak and Whitewater Memorial state park cabins operate all year. Cabins at Chain O'Lakes, Harmonie, Lincoln, and McCormick's Creek state parks close in the winter.

♿ Harmonie and Whitewater Memorial each have two cabins with full accessibility to the physically disabled. Brown County, Potato Creek and Chain O'Lakes also have some cabins with a lesser degree of accessibility.

Please do not bring your pets as they are not allowed in or around the family cabins.
